Footnotes:

^{1/} The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.

^{2/} Because April 30 falls on Saturday and July 31 falls on Sunday, these filing deadlines are extended to May 2 and August 1, respectively.

^{3/} File this report if contributions totaling $10,000 or more are made to state officeholders or committees primarily formed to support or oppose state officeholders during the corresponding period.

^{4/} In addition to paper reports, committees must file electronically if, beginning January 1, 2000, they receive contributions or make expenditures totaling $50,000 or more. For more information, visit the Secretary of State's web site at www.ss.ca.gov.

^{5/} This report is required if a committee required to file electronically with the Secretary of State makes an independent expenditure of $1,000 or more in connection with a state ballot measure being voted on November 8, 2005. No paper copy is required, and no copies are required to be filed with local filing officers.

^{6/} Supplemental independent expenditure reports (Form 465) are required to be filed if the committee makes independent expenditures of $1,000 or more during the corresponding periods. The report must be filed with the Secretary of State, County of Los Angeles, County of San Francisco, and the committee's county of domicile. The filing location addresses can be found on the FPPC web site at the following link: <http://www.fppc.ca.gov/index.html?id=19>

^{7/} A supplemental pre-election statement (Form 495) is required if contributions totaling $10,000 or more are made in connection with the election between May 8, 2005 and October 22, 2005. The report is filed in each office where the committee is required to file its regular campaign statements.

^{8/} If a committee files the supplemental pre-election statement (see footnote 7), this odd-year report is not required.

- ^{9/} The term “late contribution” includes contributions totaling $1,000 or more made to or received by a state or county central committee during the 16-day period prior to any state election.
- ^{10/} Committees filing the special online independent expenditure reports (see footnote 5) are not required to file paper copies of late independent expenditure reports during the late reporting period. Paper copies of late contribution reports are still required, including with local filing officers.
- ^{11/} A supplemental independent expenditure report (Form 465) is required to be filed by January 31, 2006, in addition to the late independent expenditure report.

Important Notes:

- Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Deadlines for late contribution and late independent expenditure reports may not be extended. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- State candidates and committees that contribute to state candidates are subject to contribution limits. Some committees that feature state candidates in advertisements are also subject to contribution limits. Contact the FPPC for specific information.
- A committee that makes an expenditure totaling $5,000 or more to an individual to appear in an advertisement to support or oppose a ballot measure must report the expenditure within 10 days on FPPC Form 511.

As of the date of this publication (08/05), the FPPC Campaign Disclosure Manual C (1995/1996) and the 2005 Campaign Manual Addendum contain the most recent information on campaign disclosure requirements for general purpose recipient committees.
